SPECIAL EXHIBITION:
Modern British Masters: Pictures from the Bryan Ferry Collection
This exceptional group of rarely seen paintings is representative of Bryan Ferry's passion for early twentieth-century British painting which he has been collecting for thirty years.

Selected by Richard Shone, Editor of The Burlington Magazine and the author of many publications on modern British art, this exhibition not only offers a fascinating insight into the tastes and interests of the former lead singer of Roxy Music and internationally-known performer but is also a great opportunity to view works by some of Britain's finest artists.
